5.4 Students Grievances Redressal Mechanism, Number of grievances received and redressed during the last 2 years

Government Degree College, Kovvur (Affiliated to Adikavi Nannaya University)

Grievance Policy

A Grievance Policy is essential to address and resolve issues, complaints, or concerns raised by students, faculty, or staff members. The general outline for a Grievance Policy in Government Degree college, Kovvur:

1. Purpose and Scope

Clearly state the purpose of the Grievance Policy, emphasizing its commitment to resolving issues promptly and fairly. Specify the scope of the policy, covering grievances related to academics, administration, facilities, discrimination, or any other relevant areas.

2. Definition of Grievance

Define what constitutes a grievance. This could include any dissatisfaction or complaint raised by a student, faculty member or staff related to the college's policies, procedures, or practices.

3. Grievance Redressal Committee

Establish a Grievance Redressal Committee responsible for handling and resolving grievances. The committee should be composed of impartial members, including faculty, staff, and student representatives.

4. Filing a Grievance

Outline the procedure for filing a grievance, including the following details:

- Grievances should be submitted in writing.
- Specify to whom the grievance should be addressed.
- Provide a designated form or format for grievance submission.
- Establish a time frame within which grievances should be filed.

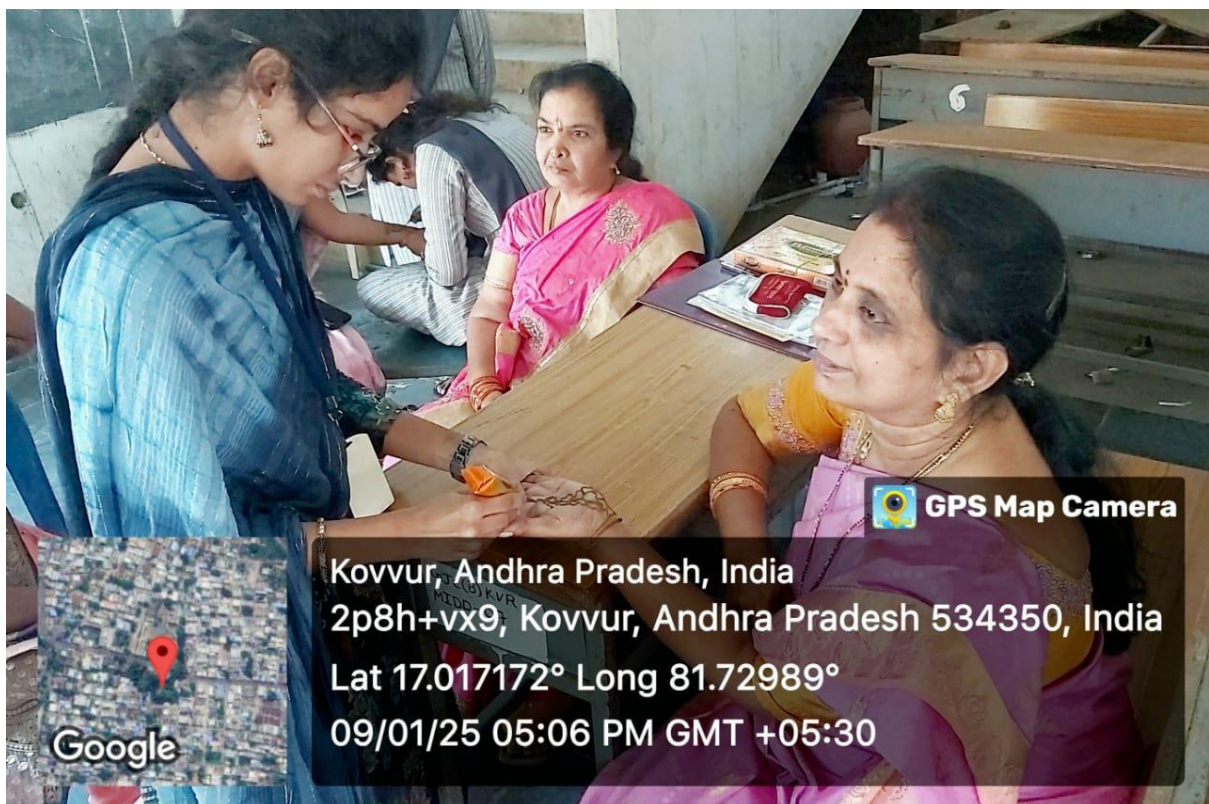

5. Confidentiality

Emphasize the confidentiality of the grievance process. Ensure that the details of the grievance and the identity of the complainant are kept confidential to the extent possible.

6. Investigation Process

Describe the process the Grievance Redressal Committee will follow in investigating and resolving grievances. This may include:

- Conducting a fair and unbiased investigation.
- Collecting relevant information and documentation.
- Interviewing involved parties.
