GOVERNMENT DEGREE COLLEGE, KOVVUR WEST GODAVARI DISTRICT NEWS LETTER

From Principal's Desk

Month of November instilled spirit and energy in the campus, as the students of the one and fifth semesters started having their classes along with third semester students after new admissions and completion of internships.

“Deeksharambh” has been started on 7/11/2022 and will be closed on 2/12/2022 with a perfect programme schedule which includes the activities related to academic, service, literary, sports and field visit. All faculty members shared their role in making the new comers accommodative to the under graduate curriculum.

Final year students have successfully completed their internship programme and submitted their reports to their mentors. Now they have started their fifth semester course work.

NSS unit of the college conducted an awareness programme on New Education Policy on National Education Day on 11/11/2022. College organized literary competitions on the occasion of National Library Week Celebrations from 14 November to 20 November. Newly admitted batch also had series of competitions to instill enthusiasm for the new course and campus. Department of Political Science conducted student talk on “Our Constitution” and the college has observed Constitution Day on 26 November with fervor. It gives pleasure in watching that the students are gearing up for mid semester examinations in December.
